Main Street Announces Federal Tax Treatment of 2019 Dividends

HOUSTON, Jan. 16, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Main Street Capital Corporation (NYSE: MAIN) ("Main Street") is pleased to announce that it has posted information regarding the U.S. federal income tax characteristics of its dividends that are attributable to 2019 on its website under "2019 Form 1099 Information" (<http://ir.mainstcapital.com/tax-information>). Main Street paid dividends totaling $2.915 per share that are attributable to 2019 for tax purposes, with approximately 90.4% of such dividends taxed as ordinary income, approximately 8.5% taxed as qualified dividends and approximately 1.1% taxed as long-term capital gains. Long-term capital gains and qualified dividends paid to non-corporate taxpayers (including individuals) qualify for favorable tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") and, for 2019, will generally be subject to a maximum 20% U.S. federal income tax rate (plus a 3.8% Medicare surtax, if applicable).

Non-U.S. resident and foreign corporation shareholders ("Non-U.S. Shareholders") in a Regulated Investment Company ("RIC") such as Main Street are exempt from U.S. withholding tax on both "interest-related" dividends and short-term capital gains in accordance with the IRC sections 871(k) and 881(e). In addition, Non-U.S. Shareholders in a RIC are also exempt from U.S. withholding tax on long-term capital gains. Main Street paid dividends totaling $2.915 per share that are attributable to 2019 for tax purposes, with approximately 55.6% of such dividends relating to "interest-related" dividends, short-term capital gains and long-term capital gains. See the "Tax Treatment of 2019 Dividends for Non-U.S. Shareholders" posted on Main Street's website for more details (<http://ir.mainstcapital.com/tax-information>).

To the extent Non-U.S. Shareholder taxes were withheld on dividends distributed, this information may be considered in connection with any claims for refund of taxes made with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. Non-U.S. Shareholders should contact their tax advisor with any questions regarding this information.
