SEI Wins Three Leading Industry Awards for Cybersecurity Solution

SEI Sphere Recognized for Advancements in Network Security, Threat Intelligence, and Managed Security Services Capabilities

OAKS, Pa., July 31, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- SEI® (NASDAQ: SEIC) today announced the company has been recognized with three awards for SEI Sphere®, which provides comprehensive cybersecurity and IT solutions designed to protect and optimize enterprise technology and data.

The award wins include:

- 2024 Global InfoSec Awards by Cyber Defense Magazine: SEI Sphere was selected for the second consecutive year as the Best Solution in the "SMB MSSP" and "Threat Intelligence" categories. This award honors forward-thinking companies building innovative solutions to address current and future cybersecurity challenges.
- 2024 Fortress Cybersecurity Awards by Business Intelligence Group: Recognizing the world's leading individuals, companies, and products at the forefront of cybersecurity innovation, this award was given to SEI in the "Network Security" and "Threat Detection" categories.
- 2024 MES Midmarket 100 List by MES Computing: SEI Sphere was named among forward-thinking technology providers that show a consistent commitment to offering products and services that support the growth of midmarket organizations.

Steve Bomberger, Head of SEI Sphere, said:

"Regardless of the industry, the threat landscape continues to increase in size and complexity. It is crucial for business leaders to shift their thinking around cybersecurity to as an investment rather than an expense. In order to help protect their clients and business operations, organizations need an enterprise-wide technology infrastructure that fits their unique needs and helps them actively manage cyber risk—both today and in the future.

"We're proud to be recognized with these top-tier industry awards as we continue our commitment to providing integrated cloud, cybersecurity, and network solutions that help keep businesses secure and focused on what they do best: meeting their strategic business goals and driving growth."
