ForgeRock Wins Gold for Innovative Software in CEO World Awards 2014

SAN FRANCISCO, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 12/17/14 -- ForgeRock® Inc., the leading open platform provider of Identity Relationship Management (IRM) solutions, has been named a gold winner in the prestigious CEO World Awards in the "Upgrades and Innovations of the Year -- Enterprise Software" category. The annual CEO World Awards program encompasses the world's best in leadership, innovation, organizational performance, new products and services, CEO case studies, and customer satisfaction programs from every major industry in the world. More than 40 judges and 200 CEOs from around the world participated in selecting the winners.

ForgeRock was selected a gold winner based on its ability to enable organizations to play a more powerful role in the online economy -- by speeding IT service delivery and helping them better understand and manage the relationships among people, devices, services and things. ForgeRock Identity Platform™ provides cutting-edge features and tools to help businesses better secure customer identities and deliver personalized services and products.

"We love hearing feedback from enterprise and government organizations that say ForgeRock Identity Platform helps them strengthen their most valuable asset, customer relationships," said Mike Ellis, chief executive officer at ForgeRock. "This award reaffirms our commitment to deliver a powerful identity platform that helps organizations eliminate business silos, create a single view of the end customer and quickly roll out new services to any application, device or thing, capabilities that are so critical in today's digital business world."

ForgeRock has transformed Identity and Access Management (IAM) from an internal, employee-centric technology to an external, customer-centric platform focused on building relationships with any population across any device or Internet of Things (IoT). The ForgeRock Identity Platform offers the only open, scalable, unified identity relationship management platform in the market that can deliver identity to anyone and anything connected online. ForgeRock counts many Fortune 2000 and government agencies worldwide as its customers. It supports more than half a billion customers, partners, devices and things (IoT).
