Conversion Right Triggered on OPKO 3.0% Convertible Senior Notes

MIAMI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- OPKO Health, Inc. (NYSE: OPK) today announced that the Company's 3.0% Convertible Senior Notes due 2033 (the "Notes") are convertible by holders of such Notes. The Company has elected to satisfy its conversion obligation under the Notes in shares of the Company's Common Stock.

This conversion right has been triggered because the closing price per share of the Company's Common Stock has exceeded $9.19, or 130% of the initial conversion price of $7.07, for at least 20 of 30 consecutive trading days during the period ending on March 31, 2015. The Notes will continue to be convertible until June 30, 2015, and may be convertible thereafter, if one or more of the conversion conditions specified in the Indenture, dated as of January 30, 2013, by and between the Company and Wells Fargo Bank N.A., is satisfied during future measurement periods. Pursuant to the Indenture, a holder who elects to convert the Notes will receive 141.4827 shares of the Company's Common Stock plus such number of additional shares as is applicable on the conversion date per $1,000 principal amount of Notes based on the early conversion provisions in the Indenture.

Wells Fargo Bank, National Association is the trustee for the holders of the Notes and the conversion agent under the Indenture. All questions relating to the mechanics of the conversion for the Notes should be directed to Wells Fargo Bank National Association, Attn: Barry Somrock at CMESCONVERSIONS@wellsfargo.com.

This press release is only a summary of certain provisions of the Notes and the Indenture. A complete explanation of the conversion rights of holders of the Notes, as well as the procedures required to convert the Notes, is set forth in the Indenture. All holders are urged to review the conversion provisions contained in the Indenture in its entirety.
