Membership in the Russell Microcap® Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes.

“Inclusion in the Russell Microcap Index builds on our strong first quarter results and momentum in our business,” said Brett Moyer, CEO of Summit Wireless. “We expect our presence in the index to drive increased visibility and investor awareness of Summit and our immersive, wireless sound technology for intelligent devices and next-generation home entertainment systems.”

Russell indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. Approximately $10.6 trillion in assets are benchmarked against Russell’s US indexes. Russell indexes are part of FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider.
