Anuvu Brings Critically Acclaimed Indie Film “Everything Everywhere All at Once” Onboard with Exclusive Worldwide Rights

The film fortifies Anuvu’s extensive library, delivering airlines the diverse entertainment passengers desire

Los Angeles, CA – May 18, 2022 – Anuvu, the leading provider of high-speed connectivity and entertainment solutions for demanding worldwide mobility markets, announced today that it has obtained the exclusive worldwide inflight distribution rights for "Everything Everywhere All at Once," a critically acclaimed sci-fi action film that has been widely touted as an indie hit by critics, with over $35 million earned at the US box office to date.

Presented by Academy Award-winning film and TV studio A24 and directed by 'Daniels' duo Daniel Kwan and Daniel Scheinert, "Everything Everywhere All at Once" features a star-studded cast including Michelle Yeoh, Stephanie Hsu and Jamie Lee Curtis. The hilarious and big-hearted sci-fi action-adventure about an exhausted Chinese American woman who can't seem to finish her taxes is currently available for passenger viewing.

"At Anuvu, we recognize the importance of telling diverse and relatable stories. As such, our team is committed to bringing films onboard like 'Everything Everywhere All at Once,' which present passengers with new perspectives, while simultaneously supporting A24 and the other indie studios who bring these stories to life," said Simon Cuthbert, VP, Content Licensing & Distribution at Anuvu. "With this new film, we are building on our growing catalog of media and content that challenges the status quo and offering passengers the entertainment they desire."
