Kush Bottles CEO, Nicholas Kovacevich, Nominated for 2015 "Excellence in Entrepreneurship Award"

Company Co-Founder and CEO recognized for his achievements

SANTA ANA, Calif., March 2, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Kush Bottles, North America's premier supplier of child-resistant packaging solutions for the marijuana industry, announced today that its CEO and Co-Founder, Nicholas Kovacevich, has been nominated for a 2015 Excellence in Entrepreneurship Award.

The Excellence in Entrepreneurship Award is designed to recognize individuals who exemplify the American entrepreneurial spirit – individuals who, by their creativity and determination, have established and nurtured successful business ventures. The awards are an opportunity to highlight those who have distinguished themselves by their foresight, determination and accomplishments.

Kush Bottles has experienced rapid growth, and since its inception just three years ago, the company has sold over 50 million units and has established themselves not only as a market leader, but also as a beacon for quality and dependability in their emerging industry.

Former winners of the award include the founders of companies such as Fisker Automotive, Cardiac Science, EZ Lube, Ruby's Restaurants, Yogurtland, and Opus Bank.

"We are pleased that Nick was nominated for this prestigious award," said Ben Wu, President of Kush Bottles. "While Nick will be the first to tell you that it's a team effort, it's through Nick's vision and leadership that we have been able to achieve so much, so rapidly. All of us here at Kush are proud of Nick, and proud to be a part of this winning team."
