LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Jan. 30, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- MGP Ingredients (NASDAQ: MGPI) has launched the New Year with two limited releases from George Remus Bourbon and Rossville Union Rye. The Distillery's proprietary bourbon and rye will be offered in single barrels, both available in two mash bills. George Remus Single Barrel Straight Bourbon Whiskey is offered at cask strength in two mash bills that reflect MGP's signature high-rye bourbon character with an SRP of $59.99. Rossville Union Single Barrel Straight Rye Whiskey is a bottled-in-bond (100-proof) release offered in two mash bills with an SRP of $49.99.

"We're proud to age some of the finest whiskey barrels in the country at our Lawrenceburg distillery," says Andrew Mansinne, Vice President of Brands. "We feel that the time has come to provide our customers with access to George Remus and Rossville Union Single Barrels. Single Barrels are in high demand, and we're in a unique position to offer a choice of mash bills to our trade partners."

Offered only once a year, the new Single Barrel offerings are on pre-sell through March 18 and will ship by September 2020. Participating accounts in the Single Barrel program are invited to meet with the distillery team in Lawrenceburg to select their preferred mash bills. Stenciled private barrels will also ship for display purposes upon release.
