Photo Advisory: Genius Brands International Promotes "Warren Buffett vs Floyd Money Mayweather" Match

OMAHA, NE -- (Marketwired) -- 05/02/15 -- Caption: The biggest boxing match in history may not be going on in Las Vegas tonight, but rather in Omaha, Nebraska this morning at the annual Berkshire Hathaway meeting. Genius Brands International (OTCQB: GNUS), who produces a film each year for the Berkshire Hathaway shareholder meeting, produced this epic and unexpected matchup, with iconic film Director, John Landis. The film captures the Welterweight Championship match between the "Berkshire Bomber" himself, Warren Buffett, and the current undefeated world champion, Floyd "Money" Mayweather. With guest appearances ranging from Charlie Rose to Steve Wynn and the Geico Gecko, the film was shown exclusively at the annual Berkshire Hathaway shareholders meeting in Omaha. The fun spirited film is not the first time Mr. Buffett and Genius Brands International have collaborated. In addition to the annual shareholders meeting, the two collaborate on the Secret Millionaires Club, an animated series for kids starring Mr. Buffett himself and a group of kids who he mentors and teaches about business. In addition to the series, there are books, videos, electronics and other fun ways the kids can learn from the "Oracle of Omaha" himself.
