Corsair Modernizes Inflight Experience with Global Eagle's Iris

Iris Offers a Cost-effective Solution to Deliver High-quality IFE to Corsair's Passengers

Santa Ana, California, May 4, 2021: Global Eagle, the leading provider of high-speed connectivity and entertainment solutions for demanding worldwide mobility markets, today announces French airline Corsair as the latest inflight entertainment (IFE) content customer using its IFE subscription service Iris.

With Iris, Corsair will deliver to passengers an expertly curated IFE experience, including selections from a wide range of Hollywood and international content. Corsair can select from several core Iris channels available, such as Feel Good and Comedy, Drama, New Releases, Classics, and more.

Estibaliz Asiain, Senior Vice President Commercial Media & Content, says: "Now is an exciting time for Corsair. Following the introduction of its new A330neo aircraft, the airline is looking to transform its inflight experience with leading-edge technologies. We are delighted to support Corsair's goal by innovatively delivering high-quality, cost-effective IFE content through Iris.

"Iris' simple pricing model gives Corsair the flexibility to dynamically change its offering every month in line with seasonal routes, fluctuating flight levels, and evolving budgets. We look forward to helping Corsair exceed passenger expectations as air travel resumes."

Gael Pichodo, Product Marketing Manager, Corsair, says: "Following an international RFP process, Global Eagle's Iris solution really impressed us. We've been waiting for years for true innovation in the IFE world, and Iris delivers perfectly on our expectations."

Iris, which launched in April 2021, is a cost-effective inflight entertainment (IFE) subscription service for airlines. The platform is already used by more than 20 of Global Eagle's major customers, with most of the company's client airlines converting by mid-2021.

Iris offers a wide variety of premium content, including bespoke customer solution services, to support airline budgets and passenger experiences, while meeting travelers' expectations for high-quality IFE as they return to flying. The service complements Global Eagle's bespoke content offering for the world's leading airline brands, leveraging the company's global scale, in-house content distribution, and technology investments in digital infrastructure and cloud computing.

Iris is available to airlines now. To request a demonstration, visit IrisIFE.com.
