Liberty Media Announces Closing of Increase to Formula 1 Revolving Credit Facilities

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") (Nasdaq: LSXMA, LSXMB, LSXMK, BATRA, BATRK, FWONA, FWONK) announced today the closing of an increased revolving credit facility under the syndicated first lien facilities agreement executed by certain subsidiaries of Delta Topco Limited, the Liberty subsidiary which holds all of its interests in Formula 1. The amount of the new revolving credit facility is $500 million and will replace the current $75 million revolving credit facility under the first lien facilities agreement. The margin is between 2.00% and 2.75% depending on leverage ratios, amongst other things. The existing $75 million revolving credit facility is not drawn as of today, and the increased revolving credit facility takes effect upon cancellation of the existing revolving credit facility, which is expected to be completed in three business days. The revolving credit facility remains non-recourse to Liberty. Delta Topco and its subsidiaries, together with the debt described herein, are attributed to the Formula One Group.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements relating to the effectiveness of the increased revolving credit facility and the cancellation of the existing revolving credit facility and other matters that are not historical facts.
