

February 27, 2012

Columbia Sportswear Company Announces Appointment of Hyung-Rae Cho as General Manager of Korea Subsidiary

Succeeds SR Cho, Retiring After 25-year Career as Company's Korea GM

PORTLAND, Ore. & SEOUL--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Columbia Sportswear Company (Nasdaq:COLM), a leading innovator in active outdoor apparel, footwear, accessories and equipment, announced today the appointment of Mr. Hyung-Rae (HR) Cho to serve as general manager of the company's wholly owned Korea subsidiary, based in Seoul, effective immediately.

Mr. Cho will succeed Mr. SR Cho (no relation), who has served as the company's general manager of Korea for the past 25 years.

HR Cho, 53, brings more than 20 years of executive experience in the Korean market, having served the past six years as Levi Strauss & Co.'s general manager of Korea. During the nine years prior to Levi, he served as general manager of Korea for Gillette and its subsidiary, Braun. In each of those roles, he led the development and successful execution of profitable strategic brand, product and marketing plans, and nurtured strong relationships with customers.

"We are delighted to welcome HR Cho to the Columbia Sportswear family in a senior leadership role in one of the company's largest markets," said Bill Tung, Columbia Sportswear's vice president of Latin America/Asia Pacific (LAAP), to whom Cho will report. "HR brings a wealth of experience in international brand and retail management and I am confident our brands will benefit from his vision and leadership."

Tung continued, "We are extremely grateful to SR Cho for his dedicated service over the past 25 years. SR was the first employee hired by Gert and Tim Boyle to lead Columbia's sourcing operations in Asia. In 1997, he started a modest sales department that has since established Korea as one of Columbia's largest markets. SR leaves behind a tremendous legacy and a solid foundation for the team to carry forward."

HR Cho added, "I am honored and energized by the opportunity to join Columbia Sportswear to pursue the growth potential of the company's innovative outdoor brands."

About Columbia Sportswear Company

Columbia Sportswear Company is a leading innovator in the global outdoor apparel, footwear, accessories and equipment markets. Founded in 1938 in Portland, Oregon, Columbia products are sold in more than 100 countries and have earned an international reputation for innovation, quality and performance. Columbia products feature innovative technologies and designs that protect outdoor enthusiasts from the elements, increase comfort, and make outdoor activities more enjoyable. In addition to the Columbia® brand, Columbia Sportswear Company also owns outdoor brands Mountain Hardwear®, Sorel®, and Montrail®. To learn more, please visit the company's websites at www.columbia.com, www.mountainhardwear.com, www.sorel.com, and www.montrail.com.

Columbia Sportswear Investor Relations and Corporate Communications

Investors:

Ron Parham, 503-985-4584

rparham@columbia.com

or

Columbia Sportswear Public Relations

U.S. Media:

Scott Trepanier, 503-985-4183

strepanier@columbia.com

Source: Columbia Sportswear Company