2010 Life Time Fitness Triathlon Series Race to the Toyota Cup Update:

The 2010 Series Professional Division cash purse includes $353,000 in individual race awards plus a $68,000 Series Bonus purse. Additionally, the female and male professional Series champions each will receive a 2010 Toyota Prius at the Toyota U.S. Open Triathlon in Dallas.

In order to be eligible for the Series Bonus and Toyota Cup, Professional triathletes must start at least four of the six Series events, one of which must include the Toyota U.S. Open Triathlon Championship in Dallas.

Currently, Rebeccah Wassner leads the 2010 Life Time Fitness Triathlon Series Race to the Toyota Cup professional women's standings, ahead of Nicole Kelleher (USA). Wassner's twin sister, Laurel, finished second at the New York event and finds herself in a three-way tie for third place in the point standings alongside Mary Beth Ellis (USA) and Sara McClarty (USA).

Within the men's professional division, David Thompson (USA) assumed the lead in point standings with his second-place finish in New York. Filip Osplay (CZE), who was the Nautica New York City Triathlon Champion, now is tied with Matt Reed (USA) for second place in the men's point standings.

In addition to the professional division, the Life Time Fitness Triathlon Series provides elite and age-group participants with awards and opportunities to participate in the Series Championship in Dallas. Through three events, 18 elite men and women, and 18 age-group athletes qualified for awards.
