Rebecca Wassner Maintains, Filip Osplay Captures Points Lead in 2010 Life Time Fitness Triathlon Series Race to the Toyota Cup

Athletes shift focus to Series championship event, the October 10 Toyota U.S. Open Triathlon in Dallas

CHANHASSEN, Minn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Following the Kaiser Permanente Los Angeles Triathlon--the fifth event of the 2010 Life Time Fitness Triathlon Series Race to the Toyota Cup--professional triathlete, Rebecca Wassner (USA), remains female point leader, while professional triathlete Filip Osplay (CZE), captures the male points lead. Next up for the Series is the championship leg, the Toyota U.S. Open Triathlon on Sunday, October 10.

Wassner has held first place in the professional women's standings since July 19, with her win during the third leg of the 2010 Life Time Fitness Triathlon Series Race to the Toyota Cup, the Nautica New York City Triathlon. She is currently 2,000 points ahead of second place in the women's points standings. Nichole Kelleher (USA) is now tied for second place in the professional women's standings with Sara McLarty (USA), who finished second in Los Angeles--the only professional woman in points standings to compete in the Los Angeles event. Laurel Wassner (USA) remains third in the women's professional division point standings, 3,000 points behind first place.

On the professional male side, Osplay placed fifth in Los Angeles and moved 2,000 points ahead of David Thompson (USA) in point standings. The 2009 Series Champion, Matt Reed, finished seventh in Los Angeles and is currently third in points standings, 6,000 points behind first place.
