Over the course of this 15-year relationship, IDEX Fire & Safety has trusted Enovation Controls to deliver advanced display and software technologies that power their groundbreaking solutions. Initially adopting the PowerView® 450 and PowerView® 750 displays, IDEX Fire & Safety has continually relied on Enovation Controls' cutting-edge technology to enhance their systems. Today, their SAM waterflow control system utilizes the PowerView® 1100 and PowerView® 700 displays, ensuring seamless operation in the field.

The SAM system, a revolutionary advancement in firefighting technology, automates complex pump operations, allowing firefighters to focus on critical tasks at the fireground. Enovation Controls' PowerView® 1100 and PowerView® 700 displays serve as key components of SAM making firefighting operations simpler, faster and safer. These advanced displays streamline pump management, reducing setup time and enabling swift waterflow, which is critical in emergencies. By enhancing the speed and accuracy of response, SAM not only helps firefighters manage complex situations efficiently but also ensures better outcomes for those relying on their expertise, ultimately safeguarding lives and property when it matters most.

"We are honored and humbled to support IDEX Fire & Safety in revolutionizing the firefighting industry," said Sean Bagan, President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Helios. "This partnership has always been about empowering first responders with the tools they need to operate safely and efficiently in the most demanding environments. As the relationship continues to evolve, Helios Technologies remains dedicated to providing innovative, rugged, and reliable technology that supports IDEX's mission of enhancing safety and performance for first responders worldwide."
