MicroVision Receives Positive Nasdaq Listing Determination

REDMOND, Wash., Feb. 06, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MicroVision, Inc. (NASDAQ:MVIS), a leader in innovative ultra-miniature projection display and sensing technology, today announced that on February 4, 2020, MicroVision, Inc. received formal notification that the Nasdaq Hearings Panel (the "Panel") had granted the Company an extension through June 9, 2020 to evidence compliance with the minimum $1.00 bid price requirement. In order to evidence compliance with the bid price requirement, the Company must evidence a closing bid price of at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days. The Company plans to take steps to timely evidence compliance; however, there can be no assurance that it will be able to do so.

As previously announced on December 12, 2019, the Company received written notice from the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Staff (the "Staff") indicating that, due to the Company's continued non-compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5450(a), the Staff had determined to delist the Company's securities from Nasdaq unless the Company timely requested a hearing before the Panel. The Panel's decision, dated February 4, 2020, follows the Company's hearing before the Panel on January 23, 2020.

About MicroVision

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this release, including those relating to the Company's ability to maintain its listing on Nasdaq, and plans to evidence compliance with the minimum bid price rule, future products and product applications and adoption of technology are forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the company's forward-looking statements include the following: the risk that the Company may be unable to evidence compliance with listing criteria within the period of time that may be granted by the Panel; our ability to raise additional capital when needed; products incorporating our PicoP display engine may not achieve market acceptance, commercial partners may not perform under agreements as anticipated, we may be unsuccessful in identifying parties interested in paying any amounts or amounts we deem desirable for the purchase or license of IP assets, our or our customers failure to perform under open purchase orders; our financial and technical resources relative to those of our competitors; our ability to keep up with rapid technological change; government regulation of our technologies; our ability to enforce our intellectual property rights and protect our proprietary technologies; the ability to obtain additional contract awards; the timing of commercial product launches and delays in product development; the ability to achieve key technical milestones in key products; dependence on third parties to develop, manufacture, sell and market our products; potential product liability claims; and other risk factors identified from time to time in the company's SEC reports, including the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC. Except as expressly required by federal securities laws, we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, changes in circumstances or any other reason.
