

Paychex Insurance Agency Webinar: Health Care Reform - What Employers Need to Know

Free webinar highlights key provisions of health care reform

ROCHESTER, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Paychex legal and compliance guidance experts discuss how health care reform legislation will impact business owners in the short term and what they need to do to prepare, in a pre-recorded educational webinar available now at www.paychexinsurance.com/seminars.aspx.

Participants will learn how to determine if they qualify for a small business tax credit, and if they do, what that credit will be. The seminar also covers the following key provisions of health care reform:

- Tax credits for employers
- W-2 reporting requirements
- Grandfathered plans
- Coverage for dependents up to age 26
- Non-discrimination mandates
- CLASS Act
- FSA, HSA and HRA

An essential partner to more than 550,000 businesses nationwide, Paychex closely monitors legislation that affects our clients. With access to legislative and regulatory specialists in Washington, D.C. and utilizing expert, in-house sources of legal and compliance guidance, Paychex Insurance Agency will continue to provide the latest information on health care reform.
