CAMARILLO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--July 1, 2004--Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq:SALM), the leading radio broadcaster focused on religious and family-themed programming, announced today that it has introduced a new station in the San Francisco Bay area effective today, with new programming beginning July 5. KNTS-AM (1220 AM) (formerly KSFB-AM) in San Francisco will provide listeners programming featuring popular talk radio personalities, including Mike Gallagher, Michael Medved, Dennis Prager and Hugh Hewitt.

According to Ken Gaines, vice president of operations for Salem Communications: "KNTS-AM (1220 AM) listeners now will enjoy the best syndicated News/Talk from some of the most respected minds in talk radio. Our listeners have waited for an intelligent talk format, right at the intersection of politics, pop culture and American values. At the same time, they will continue to have access to strong Christian Teaching and Talk programs from KFAX-AM (1100 AM)."

In celebration of America's July 4th birthday, KNTS-AM (1220 AM) is presenting non-stop popular and standard songs about America throughout the holiday weekend. The special programming also will include patriotic features about America along with comments from listeners and local celebrities sharing their expression of appreciation for our men and women in the armed forces.

Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq:SALM), headquartered in Camarillo, is the leading U.S. radio broadcaster focused on religious and family-themed programming. Upon completion of all announced transactions, the company will own and operate 97 radio stations, which mainly are comprised of three primary formats, including Christian Teaching and Talk, News/Talk, and Contemporary Christian Music. In addition to its radio properties, Salem owns the Salem Radio Network, which syndicates talk, news and music programming to over 1,600 affiliated radio stations; Salem Radio Representatives, a national sales organization; Salem Web Network, the leading Internet provider of Christian content and online streaming; and Salem Publishing, a Christian magazine publisher.
