ARKO Corp. Appoints Ross Parman to Lead Investor Relations and Government Affairs

Experienced executive will be a vital resource as ARKO completes first full year as a U.S. public company

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 14, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ARKO Corp. (Nasdaq: ARKO) ("ARKO" or the "Company"), the 6th largest convenience store chain in the U.S., announces that Ross Parman has been appointed Vice President of Investor Relations and Government Affairs. Parman will also manage and direct ARKO's investor and corporate communications, including relationships with investors and sell-side analysts.

Prior to joining ARKO, Parman was Director of Communications for Altria, the largest tobacco company in the United States. He was responsible for communications initiatives across the enterprise, including regulatory and government affairs. Ross also previously held several senior roles in consulting, with a focus on highly-regulated industries, including energy.

"I'm proud that ARKO's innovative culture continues to attract top-tier talent," said Arie Kotler, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of ARKO. "Ross has a track record of thoughtful leadership and has overseen complex projects for a diverse range of companies. He will be a vital resource for investors and analysts as ARKO completes its first full year as a U.S. public company."

"ARKO has a growing investor base that is learning about the company's unique story, stockholder value, and expanding leadership in the U.S. convenience store industry," said Parman. "I look forward to working with ARKO's world-class management team to help investors and other stakeholders learn about our path to leadership."
