Veritone to Join Russell 2000® and Russell 3000® Indexes

IRVINE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Veritone, Inc. (NASDAQ: VERI), a leader in enterprise AI and data solutions, today announced that it is set to join the Russell 2000® and Russell 3000® Indexes at the conclusion of the June 2026 Russell Reconstitution, according to a preliminary list of additions posted by FTSE Russell on May 22, 2026. Veritone's inclusion will become effective after the U.S. market close on June 26, 2026.

"We are pleased that Veritone is expected to join the Russell 2000 and Russell 3000 indexes," said Ryan Steelberg, President and Chief Executive Officer of Veritone. "We believe inclusion in these widely followed indexes will enhance Veritone's visibility with institutional investors and broaden exposure to our story as we continue to advance commercialization of our AI platform, support scalable AI innovation and enterprise deployment, and execute with greater operational efficiency across the business."

The June reconstitution of the Russell U.S. indexes captures up to the 4,000 largest U.S. stocks as of April 30, ranking them by total market capitalization. Membership in the Russell 3000® Index, which remains in place for six months under the semi-annual reconstitution schedule beginning in 2026, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000® Index or small-cap Russell 2000® Index as well as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes.
