"For 25 years now, the CIO 100 awards have honored the innovative use of technology to deliver genuine business value," said Maryfran Johnson, Editor in Chief of CIO magazine & events. "Our 2012 winners are an outstanding example of the transformative power of IT to drive everything from revenue growth to competitive advantage."

Technology lies at the core of Equifax's transformational business and data offerings and Webb has honed a strong and well-earned reputation for establishing leadership using technology as a key component of the Company's business growth and management strategy.

Webb is responsible for Equifax's global technology strategy, operations and support for the delivery of the company's innovative solutions. A 30-year veteran of the IT and financial services industries, Webb joined Equifax in 2010.

About the CIO 100 Awards:

The recipients of this year's CIO 100 award were selected through a three-step process. First, companies filled out an online application form detailing their innovative IT and business initiatives. Next, a team of judges reviewed the applications in depth, looking for unique practices and substantial results. Finally, CIO editors reviewed the judges' recommendations and voted on the final 100.

Complete coverage of the 2012 CIO 100 awards will be online at www.cio.com on August 1, 2012 and in the August 1st issue of CIO magazine.
