CV Sciences, Inc. Wins 2019 NEXTY Award

Company's industry-dominating hemp extract brand, PlusCBD Oil™, wins Consumer Choice Award at Natural Products Expo East

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 17, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CV Sciences, Inc. (OTCQB:CVSI) (the "Company", "CV Sciences", "our", "us" or "we"), a preeminent supplier and manufacturer of hemp cannabidiol (CBD) products, announced today that it received the "NEXTY Consumer Choice Award" in the Supplement Category for the Company's PlusCBD™ Oil Total Plant Complex Peppermint Spray.

Bestowed each year at Natural Products Expo East and West, the NEXTY Awards recognize natural products that eclipse others within their category in terms of innovation, inspiration, and integrity. All product candidates are evaluated via a rigorous submission and two-tiered judging process, and the winning products are selected based on targeted consumer feedback from 1,000 consumers who sample and score the products.

"Consumers choose and trust PlusCBD Oil because of our quality, purity and consistency. We offer the highest quality line of gluten-free, non-GMO full spectrum hemp CBD products in the industry and we've built our reputation on product purity and fundamentally sound research practices," said Joseph Dowling, Chief Executive Officer of CV Sciences. "We are proud to be recognized by consumers as their favorite supplement, especially by those who are new to CBD."

PlusCBD Oil Sprays are a convenient and portable option for those who take CBD oil daily and are available in three flavor options—Peppermint, Café Mocha and unflavored. Made with CBD derived from agricultural hemp, a renewable resource, PlusCBD Oil Sprays also contain naturally occurring Vitamin E, fatty acids, and other beneficial plant compounds.
