Inpixon Launches New Website Highlighting Comprehensive Indoor Intelligence Platform with Mapping, Positioning, Security and Analytics

PALO ALTO, Calif. and TORONTO, July 22, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Inpixon (Nasdaq: INPX), a leading indoor data company that delivers Indoor Intelligence™ solutions, today announced the launch of its new corporate website, inpixon.com. The website brings together assets acquired from several acquisitions into a clean, modern, and easy-to-navigate design. Divided into seven main sections -- Solutions, Technology, Industries, Use Cases, Resources, Ecosystem and Company -- this restructured design presents a more client-centric and user-friendly layout allowing visitors to easily navigate and locate the information they need.

The new website highlights Inpixon's enhanced suite of solutions secured through a number of acquisitions including its intelligent mapping capabilities, enhanced visitor and security analytics, a suite of GPS products to bridge indoor and outdoor positioning data, and the Systat and SigmaPlot suite of statistical and data visualization software. Inpixon's comprehensive Indoor Intelligence platform provides organizations with the tools to ingest, interpret, and integrate data with a wide range of dynamic, customizable, and scalable solutions encompassing indoor mapping, positioning, analytics and security.

The launch of the new site is appropriately timed to coincide with Inpixon's "Reclaim Your Workplace" national advertising campaign as it complements the campaign's objective of raising awareness around the company's Workplace Readiness solution and Inpixon's comprehensive Indoor Intelligence platform. The Inpixon Workplace Readiness solution was developed to assist organizations in preparing their workplace for the safe return of employees and visitors in addition to the company's core Indoor Intelligence platform that can address multiple use cases with a single platform.

"We are excited to launch our new website as we believe it will serve as an informative resource for our clients and prospective customers," commented Soumya Das, COO of Inpixon. "The website provides key insights and information on all our technologies and solutions. It also enables visitors to stay up-to-date on our latest news and events and provides quick access to our Investor Relations section."

Inpixon's new website is now live and can be accessed at inpixon.com. The site will be updated on a regular basis with news of product launches, business activity, corporate milestones, events, and investor and financial information. Visitors are encouraged to explore the website and sign up for direct email alerts from the Company.
