

Amesite Announces Partnership with Central Michigan University to Deliver a Complete Upskilling Solution

DETROIT, Aug. 23, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amesite Inc., (NASDAQ: AMST), a leading artificial intelligence software company offering a cloud-based learning platform and content creation services for business, university, non-profit, and government agency learning and upskilling, announces it has partnered with Central Michigan University (CMU) to deliver a complete Enterprise Learning Community Environment® (LCE<sup>SM</sup>).

CMU's LCE<sup>SM</sup> will deliver everything from first outreach in marketing to learner enrollment to certificates of completion – in one streamlined system – allowing CMU to expand partnerships with business, industry, and community organizations to identify and address employee skill gaps, as well as support upskilling needs of their expansive alumni market. The best-in-class, AI-powered LCE<sup>SM</sup> will have vast capabilities including an online content system and payment solution – all accessible from the CMU website.

Dr. Elizabeth Kirby, Vice President of Innovation and Online at Central Michigan University, stated, “CMU has been a leader in distance education and online learning for more than 50 years and continues to adapt to emerging trends to meet student needs. Amesite was the obvious choice in terms of technology and services. Their sophisticated LCE<sup>SM</sup> delivers the power and ease of use we require to reach hundreds of thousands of learners around the world.” Darcie Wilson, CMU's Executive Director of Innovation and Portfolio Management, added, “We are thrilled to partner with Amesite to execute this massive transition to a complete digitalized learning experience. This partnership is just the beginning for CMU as we expand non-credit courses, training, and workshops to meet the needs of adult learners seeking to upskill or reskill throughout their careers. We trust Amesite's ability to quickly scale and provide the outstanding experience the University needs for its learners.”
