RenaissanceRe Announces Nomination of Three New Board Members

PEMBROKE, Bermuda--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

RenaissanceRe Holdings Ltd. (NYSE:RNR) announced today that Edmund B. Greene, 69, Brian R. Hall, 65 and Scott E. Pardee, 71, three longtime members of its Board of Directors, will retire in conjunction with the Company's Annual Shareholder Meeting, when their terms of service are scheduled to expire, and that the Board has nominated three new Directors to its Board. David C. Bushnell, former Chief Administrative Officer and Senior Risk Officer of Citigroup Inc., James L. Gibbons, President and Chief Executive Officer of CAPITAL G Limited, a leading Bermuda financial services organization, and Anthony M. Santomero, former President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, will stand for election at the Company's Annual Shareholder Meeting.

Neill A. Currie, Chief Executive Officer, said, "Ed, Brian and Scott have played a central role in the growth and success of RenaissanceRe. Ed was a founding member of our Board, with Brian and Scott also joining early in our history. All have been strong stewards of our company throughout its development. We look forward to drawing on the expertise of David, James and Tony, each of whom brings to our Board a breadth of expertise in finance, risk management and other disciplines that will be invaluable to us as we continue to build upon RenaissanceRe's superior record of performance."

W. James MacGinnitie, Chairman, added, "On behalf of the entire Board of Directors, I'd like to thank Ed, Brian and Scott for their wise counsel over their many years of service. I'd also like to welcome our three new Directors, who bring a diverse set of skills and experience that greatly complements what we are fortunate to have already on our Board. I am confident that David, James and Tony will contribute greatly to our oversight of RenaissanceRe on behalf of all of its shareholders."

David C. Bushnell, 53, retired from Citigroup Inc. ("Citigroup") in November 2007 after 22 years of service, most recently as Chief Administrative Officer. Mr. Bushnell served as the Senior Risk Officer of Citigroup from 2003 through 2007, and was responsible for managing risk for Citigroup and all its member companies, with oversight responsibility for market, credit, operational risks and the compliance function. Mr. Bushnell was also a member of the Citigroup Management and Business Heads Committee, and a board member of Citibank, N.A. and other Citigroup affiliates. Prior to this experience, Mr. Bushnell worked for Salomon Smith Barney Inc. (later acquired by Citigroup) and its predecessors in a variety of positions, including as a managing director and Chief Risk Officer.

James L. Gibbons, 44, is a Bermudian citizen who is President and Chief Executive of CAPITAL G Limited and Chairman of CAPITAL G Bank Limited, leading Bermuda-based financial services organizations, as well as President of Bermuda Air Conditioning Limited. Mr. Gibbons has served as a Director of Gibbons Management Services Limited, and as Managing Director of Gibbons Deposit Company Limited. He began his career at Prudential Bache Securities after receiving a degree in Finance from Georgetown University in 1985.

Anthony M. Santomero, 61, most recently a Senior Advisor to McKinsey & Company, served as the ninth President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia. In his six years at the Federal Reserve, he was a voting member of the Federal Open Market Committee, served as Chair of the System's Committee on Credit and Risk Management and also as member of the Financial Services Policy Committee and the Payments System Policy Advisory Committee. Dr. Santomero joined the Fed from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was the Richard K. Mellon Professor of Finance, and served in a number of academic, consulting and managerial roles, including Deputy Dean of the School. He received his PhD from Brown University, and his AB from Fordham University.
