

WiSA Association President Tony Ostrom to Deliver Afternoon Keynote at Futuresource Consulting's Audio Collaborative 2018 Event

WiSA continues international push with keynote and product demonstrations at London event; Champions the WiSA Ready Platform endorsed by growing roster of worldwide brands

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--WiSA® LLC, WiSA, the (Wireless Speaker and Audio) Association, an industry group comprised of over 40 leading brands including founding member Summit Wireless Technologies (NASDAQ: WISA), today announces Association president Tony Ostrom will deliver the afternoon keynote at Futuresource Consulting's Audio Collaborative 2018 event on Wednesday, November 8 at the Ham Yard Hotel in London.

Ostrom's presentation, "The Immersive Audio Resurgence," will begin promptly at 2:35 pm local time on November 8 and will focus on the home theater revolution and its impact on the consumer audio category. This includes how content and technology will impact the consumption of stunning multi-channel audio being delivered directly into homes via OTT (over the top) services such as Netflix, Amazon and Hulu as well as digital cable providers.

Ostrom's attendance at Audio Collaborative 2018 marks a significant step in the Association's continued journey to grow its international footprint by partnering with global brands across the audio industry. This includes the addition of new Association members such as Foxconn Technology Group and existing members, including LG Electronics, Harman International (a Samsung company) and Xbox (a Microsoft company).

"This opportunity allows WiSA to share insights on consumer behavior as well as technology standardization and interoperability that will play a crucial role in the future of the global audio ecosystem," said Ostrom. "The unification of industry leaders at events such as this is pivotal to the continued adoption of new technologies that innovate the international marketplace by delivering superior, immersive and wireless sound experiences across a wide range of home entertainment systems and intelligent devices."

Futuresource Consulting's Audio Collaborative 2018 event will focus on uniting the converging worlds of professional and consumer audio. It will bring together industry heavyweights from two audio worlds to discuss the technology and market drivers that are blurring the lines between the two sectors. Hosted at the Ham Yard Hotel, attendees will experience first class presentations and panels from industry titans as well as Futuresource experts on the growth and crossover of business opportunities for the entire audio industry.
