Key Highlights:

Commenting on the quarter, Christina Emery, President, stated, "The Trust earned $0.27 per share of net investment income, net of taxes, for the third quarter of 2026, consistent with the $0.27 per share reported in the previous quarter. Both credit quality and capital structure of portfolio companies are key factors in our analysis, along with the quality of the ownership and management groups. As fundamental long-term investors, we believe it is imperative to remain disciplined and underwrite capital structures which will remain sound through economic cycles (and varying interest rate environments). We also seek to maintain a high level of portfolio diversification overall, looking at both industry and individual credit concentration. This approach has historically generated stable returns and relative stability during economic stress."

During the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Trust reported total investment income of $4.2 million, net investment income of $3.0 million, or $0.27 per share, and a net decrease in net assets resulting from operations of $5.9 million, or $0.55 per share.

Net asset value ("NAV") per share as of September 30, 2026, was $14.89, as compared to $15.81 as of June 30, 2026. The decrease in NAV per share was attributable to net unrealized depreciation on the Trust's investment portfolio of $0.79 per share primarily related to the decrease in the public share price of Madison Air Solutions Corporation, the Trust's largest holding, dividend distributions of $0.37 per share, and realized losses on investments of $0.03 per share, partially offset by net investment income of $0.27 per share.

Recent Portfolio Activity

During the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Trust made 9 new investments totaling $8.7 million and 48 add-on investments in existing portfolio companies totaling $3.2 million. The Trust realized 9 private investment loans totaling $9.8 million and realized 2 equity investments that generated realized gains of $0.01 million.
