bioAffinity Technologies to Ring Nasdaq Closing Bell Today

SAN ANTONIO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- bioAffinity Technologies, Inc. \(Nasdaq: BIAF; BIAFW\), a biotechnology company focused on the need for noninvasive, accurate tests for the detection of early-stage cancer, will ring the Nasdaq Stock Market closing bell this afternoon to commemorate the Company's 2022 initial public offering (IPO).

"Thank you to Nasdaq for giving us the opportunity to participate in one of Wall Street's most time-honored traditions," bioAffinity Technologies President and CEO Maria Zannes said. "When we ring the bell this afternoon, we will be celebrating the many milestones and scientific discoveries that led to the development of our first commercial product, CyPath[®] Lung, which can detect lung cancer at the earliest stages when treatment options are more effective and lead to longer, healthier lives."

The Nasdaq Stock Market closing bell ceremony will run from approximately 3:45 to 4:05 p.m. Eastern time. A live stream of the event will be available at <https://livestream.com/accounts/27896496/events/10809033> and on the Nasdaq Facebook and Twitter pages.
