I.D. Systems Secures VMS Warranty Contract Renewal With Global Retail Customer

WOODCLIFF LAKE, N.J., Feb. 10, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- I.D. Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ:IDSY), a leading provider of enterprise asset management technology and solutions for the Industrial Internet of Things, has secured a one-year warranty renewal contract with a leading global retail customer. The contract, in excess of $850,000, will extend the warranty on both hardware and software for the customer's Vehicle Management Systems deployed in their regional distribution centers worldwide.

Kenneth Ehrman, chairman and CEO of I.D. Systems, stated: "This key customer and partner of I.D. Systems for more than 10 years has harnessed our VMS technology as a best practice for improving its fleet safety and compliance, reducing material handling costs and increasing supply chain productivity. We are very pleased to continue providing this customer with extended warranty coverage and the highest level of customer service and support to ensure our VMS provides the value they have come to rely on for the year ahead."
