Platform Specialty Products Corporation Announces Closing of Tack-on Offering of 5.875% Senior Notes due 2025

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Dec. 08, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Platform Specialty Products Corporation (NYSE:PAH) ("Platform") announced today that it has closed its previously-announced offering of an additional $250 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2025 (the "New Notes"). The New Notes were issued under the same indenture pursuant to which Platform issued its outstanding $550 million aggregate principal amount of 5.875% senior notes due 2025, on November 24, 2017 (the "Existing Notes"). Accordingly, the New Notes have the same terms as, and are fungible and form a single series with, the Existing Notes. The New Notes bear interest at a rate of 5.875% per annum starting from November 24, 2017, to be paid semi-annually in arrears, and will mature on December 1, 2025. The New Notes are fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by certain of Platform's existing domestic subsidiaries. Upon satisfaction of certain conditions, all of the then direct and indirect domestic subsidiaries constituting Platform's Agricultural Solutions business may be released from their guarantees of the New Notes.

Platform intends to use the net proceeds from the offering of the New Notes to repay a portion of its existing term loans under its amended and restated credit agreement.

The New Notes were offered solely to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and to non-U.S. persons in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act. The New Notes and related guarantees have not been registered under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from such registration requirements of the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws.
