Inogen Announcing COPD Awareness Giveaway for Month of November

Medical Oxygen Manufacturer and Accredited Healthcare Provider Inogen Launches a Facebook Giveaway Promotion in Conjunction With Its Share for COPD Awareness Month Campaign

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Nov. 7, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Inogen announces the launch of a Facebook giveaway running throughout the month of November, called the "Share for COPD Awareness Giveaway". November is COPD (Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease) Awareness Month nationwide.

The Share for COPD Awareness Giveaway can be accessed on the campaign's website. The prize for the giveaway will be a $500 discount shopping card. To become eligible to win, users will be asked to submit a success story related to living with COPD. The story submissions are part of the Share for COPD Awareness campaign, which will run throughout the entire month of November, the goal is to be able to provide inspiration to others living with COPD.

"The Share for COPD Awareness campaign is an exciting giveaway for us," said Inogen co-founder Byron Myers. "We are aiming to increase awareness of COPD by encouraging conversation and engagement of COPD patients. We are thrilled to hear users' stories along the way and are happy to offer a promotion to start the dialogue."

Inogen offers a number of portable oxygen concentrators that deliver medical oxygen. Many of Inogen's users require medical oxygen because they suffer from COPD.

Inogen is innovation in oxygen therapy. Our mission is to improve freedom and independence for oxygen therapy patients through innovative products and services. As a manufacturer and Accredited Homecare Provider dedicated to oxygen therapy, Inogen is ideally suited to develop products tailored to oxygen therapy users and to provide superior service to those users in their homes.
