Inogen Recognized as One of the Fastest Growing Companies in North America According to Deloitte's 2016 Technology Fast 500™

Achieved 227% Revenue Growth between 2012 and 2015

GOLETA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Inogen, Inc. (NASDAQ: INGN), a medical technology company offering innovative respiratory products for use in the homecare setting, today announced it was included on Deloitte's Technology Fast 500™, a ranking of the 500 fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications, life sciences and energy tech companies in North America. This is the third consecutive year that Inogen has been named to the list. Inogen grew revenue 227% between 2012 and 2015.

Inogen's chief executive officer, Raymond Huggenberger, credits the revenue growth to the expanding awareness of the company's innovative solutions as well as the strong growth across the company's consumer and business sales channels. He said, "It is an honor to be named to Deloitte's Technology Fast 500™ for the third year in a row. We believe that the awareness of our innovative oxygen concentrators continues to expand among oxygen therapy patients and homecare providers and that is a primary driver fueling our growth across all of our sales channels."

About Deloitte's 2016 Technology Fast 500™

Deloitte's Technology Fast 500 provides a ranking of the fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications, life sciences and energy tech companies – both public and private – in North America. Technology Fast 500 award winners are selected based on percentage fiscal year revenue growth from 2012 to 2015.

In order to be eligible for Technology Fast 500 recognition, companies must own proprietary intellectual property or technology that is sold to customers in products that contribute to a majority of the company's operating revenues. Companies must have base-year operating revenues of at least $50,000 USD, and current-year operating revenues of at least $5 million USD. Additionally, companies must be in business for a minimum of four years and be headquartered within North America.
