Inogen Strengthens Board of Directors with Addition of Elizabeth Mora

GOLETA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Inogen, Inc. (NASDAQ: INGN), a medical technology company offering innovative respiratory products for use in the homecare setting, announced today that Elizabeth (Beth) Mora has been appointed to its Board of Directors, effective May 24, 2021. In addition, Ms. Mora was appointed as a member of the Board's Audit Committee. She will serve as a Class I director, with a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2024. Ms. Mora fills the vacancy on the Board and the Board's Audit Committee created by the resignation of R. Scott Greer, who resigned effective May 24, 2021. Mr. Greer had served as a member of Inogen's Board since 2015. In connection with this transition, Mr. Loren McFarland, an existing member of the Audit Committee, was appointed as Chairperson of the Board's Audit Committee and Ms. Mora was appointed as a member of the Board's Audit Committee, in each case effective May 24, 2021.

"I am excited to welcome Beth to Inogen and believe that her financial and business acumen will benefit our board of directors," said Nabil Shabshab, Inogen's CEO and President. "We believe her expertise will be a significant asset as we continue to refine and execute on our strategic plan to enhance the freedom and independence of oxygen therapy patients worldwide and further expand our product and service offerings. Additionally, Beth's experience in managing large and complex organizations with a focus on diversity and inclusion will provide a great source of guidance and partnership as we build the Inogen of the future."

"I am delighted to be working with Inogen's capable and inspired executive team and Board of Directors," said Ms. Mora. "Their best-in-class portable oxygen concentrators provide enhanced freedom and independence to oxygen therapy patients worldwide, and I look forward to contributing to the next phase of Inogen's growth and helping to increase patient access to our technologies, expand the business, and enhance shareholder value."

Ms. Mora previously served as Chief Administrative Officer, Vice President for Finance, Administration and Treasurer at the Charles Stark Draper Laboratory from 2008 to 2020. Previously, Ms. Mora served in a variety of leadership roles at Harvard University from 1997 to 2008, including as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President for Finance, Associate Vice President, Research Administration, and Director, Office for Sponsored Research. Prior to that, Ms. Mora served at Coopers and Lybrand LLP (PricewaterhouseCoopers) as Senior Manager, from 1992 to 1997 and as an Audit Senior and Manager, from 1989 to 1992. Since 2017, Ms. Mora has served as an advisory board member for Cambridge Bancorp (NASDAQ: CATC). Ms. Mora currently serves on the board of directors of MKS Instruments (NASDAQ: MKSI) and Everest Consolidator LLC. Ms. Mora holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Berkeley, and an MBA from Simmons College. Ms. Mora holds an active CPA license in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Ms. Mora also previously served on the audit committee of Greater Boston Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) organization, where Ms. Mora and her wife Susan reside.

Added Dr. Heath Lukatch, Inogen's Chairman of the Board of Directors, "I want to welcome Beth to Inogen's board and I would like to thank Scott Greer for his extensive contributions to Inogen over the past six years. Scott was an integral member of our team leading our audit committee. While we are sad to see him go, we wish him well on his future endeavors."
