

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter

Last Updated November 15, 2023

Purpose

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is created by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Mirion Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) to:

- review and evaluate the size, composition, function and duties of the Board consistent with its needs;
- recommend criteria for the selection of candidates to the Board and its committees, and identify individuals qualified to become Board members consistent with such criteria, including the consideration of nominees submitted by shareholders;
- recommend to the Board director nominees for election at the next annual or special meeting of shareholders at which directors are to be elected or to fill any vacancies or newly created directorships that may occur between such meetings;
- recommend directors for appointment to Board committees;
- make recommendations to the Board as to determinations of director independence;
- oversee the evaluation of the Board;
- assist the Board, in coordination with the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee, in overseeing the Company’s activities with respect to environmental, social and corporate governance (“ESG”) matters; and
- develop and recommend to the Board the Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for the Company and oversee compliance with such Guidelines and Code.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of at least two members, comprised solely of directors deemed by the Board to be independent and who meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board shall recommend nominees for appointment to the Committee annually and as vacancies or newly created positions occur. Committee members shall be appointed by the Board and may be removed by the Board at any time. The Board shall designate the Chair of the Committee.

Quorum

A majority of the members of the Committee present in person or by means of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Responsibilities

In addition to any other responsibilities which may be assigned from time to time by the Board, the Committee is responsible for the following matters.

Board/Committee Nominees

- The Committee shall oversee searches for and identify qualified individuals for membership on the Board.
- The Committee shall recommend to the Board criteria for Board and Board committee membership and shall recommend individuals for membership on the Board and its committees. In making its recommendations for Board and committee membership, the Committee shall:
 - review candidates' qualifications for membership on the Board or a committee of the Board (including making a specific determination as to the independence of each candidate) based on the criteria approved by the Board (and taking into account the enhanced independence, financial literacy and financial expertise standards that may be required under law or New York Stock Exchange rules for Audit Committee or other committee membership purposes);
 - in evaluating current directors for re-nomination to the Board or re-appointment to any Board committees, assess the performance of such directors;
 - periodically review the composition of the Board and its committees in light of the current challenges and needs of the Board, the Company and each committee, and determine whether it may be appropriate to add or remove individuals after considering issues of judgment, diversity, age, skills, background and experience;
 - periodically review, as appropriate, the service of all directors on the boards of other public companies with consideration to the substantial time commitment required of directors and make such recommendations to the Board as it may deem advisable;
 - consider rotation of committee members and committee chairs, as appropriate; and
 - consider any other factors that are set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines or are deemed appropriate by the Committee or the Board.

Evaluating the Board and its Committees

- At least annually, the Committee shall lead the Board in a self-evaluation to determine whether it and its committees are functioning effectively. The Committee shall oversee the evaluation process and report on such process and the results of the evaluations, including any recommendations for proposed changes, to the Board.
- At least annually, the Committee shall review the evaluations prepared by each Board committee of such committee's performance and consider any recommendations for proposed changes to the Board.

Corporate Responsibility and Sustainability

- The Committee shall have overall responsibility to oversee Company management and to provide guidance with respect to the Company's ESG matters, in coordination with the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee, including environmental, climate risks and opportunities, sustainability matters, employee health and safety concerns and the Company's related reporting to stakeholders. Management shall provide the Committee with regular updates regarding the Company's activities with respect to ESG matters.
- The Committee, in coordination with the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee, shall review and assess, as needed, the Company's ESG related policies, with each standing committee responsible for reviewing the ESG policy falling within the purview and subject matter of that committee.

Corporate Governance Matters

- The Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board the Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for the Company. At least annually, the Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of such Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.
- The Committee shall be responsible for any tasks assigned to it in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.
- The Committee shall oversee compliance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and report on such compliance to the Board. The Committee shall also review and consider any requests for waivers of the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines or Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for the Company's directors, executive officers and other senior financial officers, and shall make a recommendation to the Board with respect to such request for a waiver.
- The Committee shall review potential conflicts of interest involving directors, including whether such director or directors may vote on any issue as to which there may be a conflict.

Director Orientation and Continuing Education

- The Committee shall oversee an orientation and continuing education program for directors meeting the requirements set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Reporting to the Board

- The Committee shall report to the Board periodically.
- The Committee members shall perform an annual evaluation, as administered by this Committee. In conducting this review, the Committee shall evaluate whether this charter appropriately addresses the matters that are or should be within its scope and shall recommend such changes as it deems necessary or appropriate. The Committee shall address all matters that the Committee considers relevant to its performance, and report to the Board on such evaluation.

Authority and Delegations

The Committee has the sole authority to retain and terminate any advisers, including search firms to identify director candidates, any search firm assisting the Committee in identifying director candidates, including sole authority to approve all such advisers', search firm's fees and other retention terms.

The Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees or the Chair of the Committee when it deems it to be appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.

Procedures

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities under this Charter. The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of the Committee meetings and shall set meeting agendas consistent with this Charter.
