

MAXLINEAR, INC.
AMENDED AND RESTATED
NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

Adopted and Approved November 5, 2009
Effective March 23, 2010
As Amended and Restated August 23, 2017
As Amended and Restated March 30, 2021

PURPOSE

The principal purposes of the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of MaxLinear, Inc. (the “Company”) shall be to:

1. assist the Board in identifying prospective director nominees and determine their qualifications relative to criteria approved by the Board upon recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee;
2. recommend to the Board the director nominees for each annual meeting of stockholders;
3. recommend members for each Board committee;
4. ensure that the Board is properly constituted to meet its fiduciary obligations to the Company and its stockholders and that the Company follows appropriate governance standards;
5. develop and recommend to the Board governance principles applicable to the Company; and
6. oversee the evaluation of the Board and management.

MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

The Nominating and Governance Committee members will be appointed by, and serve at the discretion of, the Board. Nominating and Governance Committee members may be replaced by the Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee will consist of at least two (2) members of the Board. Members of the Nominating and Governance Committee must meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

The Board may designate one member of the Nominating and Governance Committee as its chair.

AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate the current composition, organization and governance of the Board and its committees, determine future requirements, and make recommendations to the Board with respect thereto for Board approval.
2. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall recommend for approval by the Board as needed desired qualifications and characteristics for Board membership and conduct searches for potential Board members with corresponding attributes, which attributes may include, among others, factors such as individual character, professional ethics and integrity, judgment, business acumen, proven achievement and competence in field, an understanding of the Company's business and the responsibilities of service on a public company board of directors, and diversity with respect to professional background, education, race, ethnicity, and gender, as well as other individual qualities and attributes that contribute to the total mix of viewpoints and experiences represented on the Board.
3. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate and propose nominees for election to the Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall consider stockholder nominees for election to the Board. In performing these tasks the Nominating and Governance Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve such search firm's fees.
4. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate the "independence" of directors and director nominees against the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and other applicable laws.
5. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate the performance of and, if appropriate, recommend termination of particular directors in accordance with the Board's governance principles, for cause or for other appropriate reasons.
6. Recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject a director resignation, or take other action, where a director fails to receive a majority vote as specified under the Company's bylaws and the Company's Corporate Governance Principles.
7. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall evaluate and make recommendations to the Board concerning the appointment of directors to Board committees and the selection of Board committee chairs.

8. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company. In addition, the Nominating and Governance Committee shall periodically assess and review the Company's charter documents, board structure, and stockholder rights and protections generally (including, for example, the advisability of stockholder rights plans) and make recommendations to the Board with respect to any modifications or amendments thereto.
9. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall periodically review the terms of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") and Anti-Corruption Policy (the "Anti-Corruption Policy"), recommend changes it may determine appropriate to the Board for approval, and review information provided by management concerning its implementation of the Code and FCPA Policy, including employee training.
10. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review and approve the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance policies and any renewals thereof, subject to consultation with the Board concerning the types and amounts of coverage.
11. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall conduct a periodic review of the Company's succession planning process for the chief executive officer and other members of the Company's executive management team and shall report its findings and recommendations with respect thereto to the Board for approval.
12. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall oversee the Company's director orientation and education programs.
13. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall assist the Board in overseeing the Company's Environmental, Social and Governance programs and the Company's communications and disclosures with respect thereto.
14. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall oversee the performance evaluation process for the Board and its committees, including, if determined appropriate, approving director questionnaire forms and conducting surveys of director observations, suggestions and preferences. Conducting the actual performance evaluations shall be the responsibility of the Board and each committee.
15. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review the activities of the Company's Disclosure Committee, which otherwise reports to the Company's Audit Committee, and the Disclosure Committee Charter.
16. The Nominating and Governance Committee may form subcommittees for any purpose that the Nominating and Governance Committee deems appropriate and may delegate to such subcommittees such power and authority as the Nominating and Governance Committee deems appropriate.

17. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall make regular reports to the Board.
18. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy and scope of this Charter periodically and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
19. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall annually review its own performance.
20. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall have authority to obtain advice and assistance from internal or external legal or other advisors.
21. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall perform such other functions as assigned by law, the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws or the Board.

MEETINGS

The Nominating and Governance Committee will set its own schedule of meetings and will establish its own schedule, which it will provide to the Board.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

COMPENSATION

Members of the Nominating and Governance Committee shall receive such fees, if any, for their service as Nominating and Governance Committee members as may be determined by the Board in its sole discretion. Such fees may include retainers or per meeting fees. Fees may be paid in such form of consideration as is determined by the Board.

Members of the Nominating and Governance Committee shall not receive any compensation from the Company except the fees received as a member of the Board or any committee thereof.
