"And as we reflect on the market and growing business potential, we remain focused on creating long-term shareholder value through our fundamental research and development, which aims to address the core challenges in IoT and labor-intensive data entry. Universal Smart IoT not only preserves the information-sharing capabilities of traditional IoT but also provides universal common hardware and software platforms. As a result, the prohibitive development and production costs, as well as the technological complexity that have hindered traditional IoT, are finally resolved. The longstanding challenges of IoT have been solved. When the 90% of universal IoT infrastructure is no longer repeatedly rebuilt, IoT development becomes far cheaper and simpler than building non-IoT devices."

Dr. Desheng Wang also concluded, "Furthermore, our SEC Financial Reporting software is 10,000 times faster than traditional manual methods, demonstrating the transformative power of automation and AI-driven innovation. With a single click, months of complex SEC financial reporting work can be completed in just one minute. We plan to showcase all of these technologies at CES from January 6th to 9th in Las Vegas."
