PeopleScout Ranked a Top Enterprise and Healthcare RPO Provider on 2017 HRO Today Baker's Dozen

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- PeopleScout, a TrueBlue company and leading global provider of talent solutions, is recognized as a top Enterprise RPO Provider on HRO Today's 2017 Baker's Dozen Customer Satisfaction Ratings. PeopleScout was also ranked a top Healthcare RPO Provider on this year's survey.

"We are pleased to be ranked a top Enterprise RPO Provider again this year and grateful for this recognition by our clients," PeopleScout President Taryn Owen said. "We are also thrilled that our ability to deliver high-value RPO solutions for healthcare clients was recognized. Healthcare has been a significant growth area for PeopleScout, and we are focused on using our expertise and superior technology to take our talent acquisition services for the healthcare industry to the next level."

"HRO Today congratulates PeopleScout on its first appearance on the RPO Baker's Dozen for Healthcare Providers and its consistent ranking as a top Enterprise RPO Provider," Elliot Clark, CEO and Chairman of SharedXpertise and HRO Today said. "PeopleScout's strong track record delivering some of the largest and most complex RPO solutions combined with their expanded focus on healthcare makes PeopleScout an RPO to watch in the healthcare space for 2018."

The HRO Today RPO Baker's Dozen is a recognition of top RPO providers based solely on feedback from buyers of RPO services. HRO Today surveys RPO buyers and analyzes the results across subcategories of quality, breadth of service and size of deal to calculate the final rankings.
