Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Unveils 2026-2027 Voyage Collection to Entice Luxury Travelers

The New Voyage Collection Features 173 sailings with 16 New Ports, 8 New Immersive Overnight Sailings and 4 Grand Voyages

MIAMI, July 17, 2024 – Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world's leading ultra luxury cruise line, has announced its 2026-2027 Voyage Collection designed to entice luxury travelers with immersive, culturally rich, and unique experiences.

Showcasing 173 new itineraries across the world's most desired destinations, the collection includes Africa & Arabia, Alaska, Asia, Australia & New Zealand, Canada & New England, the Caribbean & Panama Canal, the Mediterranean, Northern Europe, South America, and the South Pacific. Guests can pre-register for voyages starting today, with reservations opening for sale on July 24, 2024.

"Our 2026-2027 Voyage Collection Debut is an incredible array of sailings that offers luxury travelers the opportunity to experience new cultures, gain new perspectives, and create unforgettable memories across thousands of nautical miles," said Andrea DeMarco, President of Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "Whether spending 7 days or 7 weeks or more on board, our guests will see the world while enjoying the highest standards of personalized service, and the most comprehensive inclusion list of any ultra luxury cruise line from spacious suites to unlimited shore excursions, from exquisite specialty dining to premium beverages."

As well as the 140-night 2027 World Cruise, the collection features 4 new Grand Voyages which vary from 60 to 82 nights in length covering vast areas of sea and land. Regent has also created 8 Immersive Overnight sailings, which are unique to Regent Seven Seas Cruises, where close to every port of call features an overnight stay.

Additional highlights include new opportunities to sail Alaska from Seattle, and the Caribbean from Galveston, Texas and Tampa, Florida. Further afield, there are 7 port intensive voyages in Japan, tours of Fjords of Milford, Doubtful & Dusky Sound in New Zealand, South American adventures taking in Drake Passage and the Arctic Peninsula, 4 Icelandic sailings and much more.

Across the collection there are 144 overnight stays in iconic destinations such as Hong Kong, China; Bora Bora, French Polynesia; and Mumbai, India; as well as 16 maiden ports of calls in exotic locales including Mombasa, Kenya; Zanzibar, Tanzania; and Melaka, Malaysia.

In celebration of the Voyage Collection debut, guests can enjoy 5% savings when they reserve two or more voyages between July 24 and August 7, 2024. They can choose any sailing that is open for sale in 2024, 2025, 2026 and 2027 and then get 5% off all subsequent voyages booked that are part of Regent's 2026-2027 Voyage Collection. For instance, guests may explore Alaska's stunning landscapes in 2025 and then save 5% on a newly launched voyage to witness the cherry blossoms bloom across Japan in 2027.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises is The Most Inclusive Luxury Experience®, where guests are invited to revel in opportunities for immersion in local cultures with included unlimited shore excursions at every port of call, allowing them to fully embrace each destination. They may also choose from a remarkable menu of Regent Choice excursions for a nominal fee, which includes Epicurean Explorer Tours to Wellness Tours to Eco-Connect and Behind the Design Tours to name just a few. All the while, Regent Seven Seas Cruises' Unrivaled Space at Sea™ makes for the perfect homecoming and place for rest and relaxation. The abundance of space aboard each elegant and perfectly sized ship, and one of the highest crew-to-guest ratios in the industry, ensures discerning guests receive the best in service and care. Dining onboard a Regent voyage is unmatched with a variety of sensational specialty restaurants – the beloved French restaurant Chartreuse, the elevated steakhouse Prime 7, authentic Italian in Sette Mari, tantalizing Asian-fusion in Pacific Rim, and the ever-changing menu of Compass Rose – that will satiate the appetite of any discerning gourmand.

All this plus premium beverages, valet laundry service, gratuities and much more is included in Regent's All-Inclusive Cruise Fare.
