Investing in the shares of GALT involves risks, including the risk that shareholders may receive little or no return on their investment or may lose part or all of their investment. The NAV of the shares will fluctuate with and be affected by, among other things, various principal investment risks applicable to us and our investments. We are a new fund with no operating history and we are subject to all of the business risks and uncertainties associated with any new business enterprise. Investors are advised to carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses of GALT before investing. The prospectus, dated November 7, 2024, which has been filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, contains this and other information about GALT and should be read carefully before investing.
