Nasdaq Provides Temporary Regulatory Relief

Taronis Now Exempt from Minimum Bid Requirement
Until At Least June 30, 2020

PHOENIX, AZ, April 17, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Taronis Technologies, Inc., (“Taronis” or “the Company”) (NASDAQ: TRNX), a sustainability technologies company with patented water decontamination and conservation applications has been informed that Nasdaq has granted temporary regulatory relief related to minimum listing bid price requirements and the market value of publicly held shares due to the COVID-19 pandemic for all Nasdaq listed companies.

Taronis had previously been notified of a minimum bid deficiency as a result of having a closing bid price below $1.00 for 30 consecutive trading days. As a result of the announced regulatory relief, the Company now has until at least June 30, 2020 to regain compliance. The Company is actively exploring a range of strategic investments, transactions and commercial relationships that it believes could satisfy the listing requirements on or before June 30th.

Additional information regarding the temporary regulatory relief can be found at the following: <https://www.nasdaq.com/COVID-Response>

About Taronis Technologies, Inc.

Taronis Technologies, Inc. (TRNX) owns a patented plasma arc technology that enables two primary end use applications for fuel generation and water decontamination. The Company holds a 7% royalty on the global use of its fuel generation intellectual property. The initial commercialized renewable fuel product license is disrupting an $8 billion global metal cutting fuel market.

The Company’s technology can also be implemented for the decontamination of waste water, including sterilizing water, eradicating all pathogens. The technology is being tested to determine if it can completely eliminate pharmaceutical contaminants such as antibiotics, hormones and other soluble drugs suspended in contaminated water. Lastly, the technology process is capable of reducing or eliminating other contaminants, such as harmful metals, as well as nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium levels. The technology has prospective commercial applications in the agricultural, pharmaceutical, and municipal waste markets. For more information on Taronis, please visit the Company's website at <http://www.TaronisTech.com>.

Taronis also owns a controlling interest in Water Pilot, LLC. The WATER PILOT[®] System immediately reduces water consumption and provides you with live remote consumption monitoring for long term leak protection and water asset management. An integral, client based alarm and notification system that reports to any mobile device. Water Pilot may be appropriate for a wide range of businesses or properties with a water meter. For more information, please visit our website at www.gowaterpilot.com/
