"Simply an amazing day. A big thank you to everyone, my team and my partners. It took a lot of commitment from everyone and I want to thank PeopleReady for their partnership with me and the RLL team in this year's Indy 500 win. It's everything a driver can dream of, winning the Indy 500." – Takuma Sato, 2020 Indianapolis 500 winner.

"I can't ask for much more than this, an incredible win by Takuma Sato, such a talented driver on our team, and a dedicated partner like PeopleReady with such a strong mission. PeopleReady's efforts in helping people find the work they need, especially during these times, is critically important. We're proud to have such a mission-driven company as a part of the Rahal Letterman Lanigan Racing team and partner of Takuma Sato." - Bobby Rahal, co-owner of RLL.

"PeopleReady is extremely excited to be a part of Takuma Sato's and Rahal Letterman Lanigan Racing team's 2020 Indianapolis 500 win. We're proud to have such talented partners for our debut Indy car race. Seeing our brand cross the finish line first helps drive home our mission of connecting people and work at a time when so many have been impacted by joblessness. Congratulations to Takuma and the entire RLL team." – Taryn Owen, President of PeopleReady.

"We were thrilled to see Takuma Sato and PeopleReady cross the finish line first at the Indy 500. Having that level of brand visibility at such an iconic race amplifies PeopleReady's efforts in helping people find work. Congratulations to Takuma and our RLL partners on an outstanding win as we work to support our communities." – Patrick Beharelle, CEO of TrueBlue, parent company of PeopleReady.
