Huntsman Reconfirms Options Following Separation to Further Create Shareholder Value

THE WOODLANDS, Texas, March 29, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Huntsman Corporation (NYSE: HUN) today noted that a Bloomberg article on March 28, 2017 reported that the Executive Chairman Jon M. Huntsman had commented in an interview that a number of companies would be suitable merger candidates for Huntsman following the planned separation of its Pigments and Additives business (to be known as Venator Materials Corporation). Huntsman noted that this statement was consistent with statements previously made to the markets by CEO Peter Huntsman who commented that "Huntsman has numerous options to increase shareholder value following the separation, including a merger-of-equals transaction, and that the Company will be carefully considering all of those options."
