ABOUT SAM

Sam Blatnick is a highly accomplished trial attorney and seasoned commercial litigator known for his extensive experience handling a diverse range of complex litigation matters. From contract disputes to intellectual property infringement and bankruptcy claims, he has successfully represented both defendants and plaintiffs in state and federal courts across the United States. Sam's versatile legal expertise extends across New York, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, and Iowa, with admissions to various federal courts.

Before joining Lucosky Brookman, Sam held pivotal roles at prestigious law firms, including Cravath, Swaine & Moore, LLP, and Kirkland & Ellis LLP, amassing over a decade of experience as a senior attorney and partner. His impressive track record in high-stakes litigation is complemented by early achievements in the financial sector, where he earned an Excel Award for outstanding performance on the CPA exam. As a former NCAA Division I athlete, Sam brings a unique blend of tenacity, strategic thinking, and a commitment to excellence to his legal practice, making him a formidable advocate for clients in the realm of commercial litigation.

NAVIGATING COMPLEX LEGAL LANDSCAPES

In today's complex regulatory environment, public and private companies, their executives, and employees are faced with legal challenges that require a comprehensive understanding of the law, coupled with strategic acumen. Our attorneys are dedicated to representing corporations, boards of directors, management, and other individuals in all phases of civil enforcement and criminal investigations, jury trials, and internal investigations.

With a deep-rooted understanding of the securities industry and the financial regulatory ecosystem, our team provides unmatched expertise in handling regulatory and criminal matters that often concern our clients' most critical and challenging issues.

Our team includes seasoned attorneys with senior experience in U.S. law enforcement and the SEC. This unique background equips us with unparalleled insight into regulatory procedures. With strong relationships and a proactive approach, we navigate complex cases effectively, anticipating regulatory shifts and providing dedicated representation for our clients in white-collar defense and regulatory investigations.
