DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., May 05, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- TopBuild Corp. (NYSE:BLD), a leading installer and distributor of insulation and building material products today reported results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2020.

Jerry Volas, Chief Executive Officer, stated, "We are pleased with our strong first quarter results which were only marginally impacted by COVID-19. Top line growth was solid and operating margins expanded in both business segments. We ended the quarter with $576 million of total liquidity and net leverage of 1.46x trailing 12 months adjusted EBITDA. TopBuild has a strong balance sheet with which to manage through the current environment.

"Our cycle-tested leadership team has built a flexible business model focused around achieving operational efficiencies throughout our organization. Given the current environment, we are evaluating every aspect of our business and striking a balance between short term cost reductions and the preservation of the muscle required to fully capitalize on the eventual recovery.

"Be assured, all of our decisions place the health and safety of our employees first."

First Quarter 2020 Financial Highlights

(unless otherwise indicated, comparisons are to the quarter ended March 31, 2019)

Capital Allocation

Acquisitions

The Company completed two acquisitions in the first quarter, Hunter Insulation and Cooper Glass, both of which were previously announced in February. In 2019, the two firms combined generated approximately $19 million in annual revenue.

Share Repurchases

The Company completed the $50 million accelerated share repurchase program announced on October 31, 2019. Under the terms of the program, the Company repurchased a total of 465,956 shares of the Company's common stock at an average price of $107.31 per share. In addition, in the first quarter the Company repurchased an additional 188,100 shares at an average price of $75.10 per share. These shares were purchased as part of the Company's $200 million share repurchase program announced on February 26, 2019. As of March 31, 2020, approximately $75 million of the $200 million authorization remained.

Credit Facility Upsized

On March 23, 2020, the Company announced it had entered into a new term loan and revolving credit facility, replacing its previous senior secured facilities. The revolving credit facility was upsized by $200 million to $450 million, which increased total borrowing capacity to $750 million. In addition, the maturity date was extended three years to March 2025.

2020 Outlook

On April 14, 2020, the Company withdrew its 2020 Revenue and Adjusted EBITDA guidance due to uncertainty about the full scope of the COVID-19 impact.

"With the national landscape continuing to evolve, it is too early for us to determine the full impact of COVID-19 on our operations. We will continue to proactively respond to changes in the economic environment. We intend to resume guidance when visibility improves," stated Volas.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Adjusted EBITDA, incremental EBITDA margin, adjusted EBITDA margin, the "adjusted" financial measures presented above, and figures presented on a "same branch basis" are not calculated in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The Company believes that these non-GAAP financial measures, which are used in managing the business, may provide users of this financial information with additional meaningful comparisons between current results and results in prior periods. We define same branch sales as sales from branches in operation for at least 12 full calendar months. Such non-GAAP financial measures are reconciled to their closest GAAP financial measures in tables contained in this press release. Non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed in addition to, and not as an alternative for, the Company's reported results under GAAP. Additional information may be found in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission which are available on TopBuild's website under "Investors" at www.topbuild.com.

Safe Harbor Statement

Statements contained in this report that reflect our views about future periods, including our future plans and performance, constitute "forward-looking statements" under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as "will," "would," "anticipate," "expect," "believe," "designed," "plan," or "intend," the negative of these terms, and similar references to future periods. These views involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and, accordingly, our actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in our forward-looking statements. We caution you against unduly relying on any of these forward-looking statements. Our future performance may be affected by the duration and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the United States economy, specifically with respect to residential and commercial construction;

our ability to continue operations in markets affected by the COVID-19 pandemic and our ability to collect receivables from our customers; our reliance on residential new construction, residential repair/remodel, and commercial construction; our reliance on third-party suppliers and manufacturers; our ability to attract, develop, and retain talented personnel and our sales and labor force; our ability to maintain consistent practices across our locations; and our ability to maintain our competitive position. We discuss the material risks we face under the caption entitled “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2019, as filed with the SEC on February 25, 2020, as well as under the caption entitled “Risk Factors” in subsequent reports that we file with the SEC. Our forward-looking statements in this filing speak only as of the date of this filing. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to differ may emerge from time to time and it is not possible for us to predict all of them. Unless required by law, we undertake no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. The Company believes that the non-GAAP performance measures and ratios that are contained herein, which management uses to manage our business, provide users of this financial information with additional meaningful comparisons between current results and results in our prior periods. Non-GAAP performance measures and ratios should be viewed in addition, and not as an alternative, to the Company's reported results under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.
