Dining Out Just Got Easier for ExxonMobil Cardholders

ExxonMobil Personal Cardholders Can Earn a $50 Restaurant.com Dining Certificate

- ExxonMobil Personal Cardholders can earn a $50 dining certificate by registering their card and purchasing 100 gallons of gasoline within 90 days.
- Customers who open a new ExxonMobil Personal Card account can earn up to $100 in dining certificates.
- Promotion runs September 1 through November 30, 2010.

FAIRFAX, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- This fall, Exxon and Mobil retailers and Citi are giving cardholders the opportunity to earn a dining certificate that can be used at thousands of restaurants and online merchants. From September 1 through November 30, 2010, ExxonMobil Personal Cardholders who register at dining.exxonmobilcard.com will earn a $50 dining certificate if they purchase 100 gallons of gasoline within 90 days of the date of registration. Offered by Restaurant.com, this certificate can be redeemed online at more than 15,000 restaurants and online merchants nationwide.

If customers don't have an ExxonMobil Personal Card, they can still take part by opening a new account at dining.exxonmobilcard.com or by calling 1-866-379-1010. New cardholders will receive one $50 certificate when they are approved for a new account and another $50 certificate if they purchase 100 gallons of gasoline within 90 days of the date their account was opened.*

"This promotion is a great reminder to our cardholders that the ExxonMobil Personal Card is the smart way to pay for quality Exxon and Mobil branded gasoline," said Ben Soraci, U.S. retail sales director for ExxonMobil. "It already offers a great value, with pay-at-the-pump convenience at 10,000 Exxon and Mobil stations, $0 fraud liability and online account management tools -- and from September through November, cardholders will have an added incentive that makes dining out a little more affordable."
