ATA Announces Resignation of President Walter Wang

Mr. Wang to Remain on Board of Directors and to Continue Work with Company as Consultant

BEIJING, Dec. 7, 2012 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- ATA Inc. ("ATA" or the "Company", Nasdaq: ATAI), a leading provider of computer-based testing and testing-related services in China, today announced that the Company's president and co-founder Walter Wang has tendered his resignation, effective January 1, 2013, for personal reasons. His duties will be redirected amongst current members of ATA's management team.

Mr. Wang will remain a member of ATA's Board of Directors and continue to contribute to the Company as a consultant assisting primarily with the HR Select and TOEIC businesses.

Mr. Kevin Ma, Chairman and CEO, stated, "On behalf of the entire team at ATA, I sincerely thank Walter for his many years of hard work and dedication to our shared vision for the Company. We wish him all the best in his future endeavors and are very pleased that he will continue contributing his knowledge and experience to ATA as we further develop our new lines of business."

Mr. Wang commented, "It has been a pleasure and honor to work with an executive team that is as earnest and committed to the goal of advancing quality and equity in education and employment as I am. I look forward to continue offering my expertise and support to ATA's growth initiatives in the years to come."

About ATA Inc.
