Liberty Media Announces Amendment to Formula 1 Financial Covenant

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") (Nasdaq: LSXMA, LSXMB, LSXMK, BATRA, BATRK, FWONA, FWONK) announced today an amendment to the term loan and revolving credit facility of certain subsidiaries of Delta Topco Limited, the Liberty subsidiary that holds all of its interests in Formula 1 ("Formula 1").

"Formula 1 remains the pinnacle of motorsport as it celebrates its 70th anniversary," said Chase Carey, Chairman and CEO of Formula 1. "This new flexibility in our debt covenants, along with a strong balance sheet and ample liquidity, will enable us to weather this difficult time and we are excited to start the season in Austria on 3-5 July. We return to the track with added purpose and determination with our new #WeRaceAsOne initiative."

The amendment has been made to the net leverage financial covenant under the facilities agreement governing the $2,902 million first lien term loan and the $500 million first lien revolving credit facility at Formula 1. The amendment provides that, subject to compliance by Formula 1 with certain additional conditions, the net leverage financial covenant shall not apply until 1 January 2022.

The relevant conditions applicable to Formula 1 include the maintenance of minimum liquidity (comprised of unrestricted cash and cash equivalent investments and available revolving credit facility commitments) of $200 million and certain restrictions on dividends, other payments and the incurrence of additional debt. Formula 1 retains an ability pursuant to the amendment to recommence the requirement to comply with the net leverage financial covenant prior to 1 January 2022 and in which case the relevant additional conditions will cease to apply. As of today, the $500 million first lien revolving credit facility is undrawn. Delta Topco Limited and its subsidiaries, together with the debt described herein, are attributed to the Formula One Group tracking stock.
