Ingram Micro to Continue to Provide Quarterly Financial Results

IRVINE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 12/16/16 -- Ingram Micro Inc. today announced that the company intends to continue to make its US GAAP financial results available via press release on a quarterly basis, although it will make no further filings or reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) following the suspension of such obligations effective upon the filing of its Form 15 with the SEC earlier today.

Ingram Micro CEO Alain Monié commented, "In addition to the broadest solutions portfolio and greatest geographic reach, Ingram Micro's industry leadership is based in part on our strong financial position, including a healthy balance sheet. Our financial strength provides our vendor and customer partners, as well as our bankers, a high level of comfort when doing business with Ingram Micro. We are committed to maintaining business as usual at Ingram Micro and this includes continuing to publish quarterly financial results."
