NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Peanut butter + Jelly. Mario + Luigi. Spaghetti + Meatballs. Pairings that just make sense together. And now at Altice USA's (NYSE: ATUS) Optimum, the company is introducing the newest iconic duo – our converged internet + mobile offering, Optimum Complete.

Today, Optimum is harnessing the power of its superior fiber to the home networks and full connectivity product portfolio to launch Optimum Complete, a simple and seamless way for customers to stay connected at home and on the go.

With Optimum Complete, customers have access to advanced Optimum Internet + Optimum Mobile services, delivering fast, fiber-rich internet and WiFi in the home and 5G, nationwide wireless coverage on the go, available through one provider and with one simple, transparent price point, providing complete connectivity, simplicity, peace of mind, and exceptional value. And when selecting the Optimum Fiber 5 Gig tier, customers will have access to the fastest fiber internet¹ service and Optimum Mobile with unlimited data.

When combining internet and mobile services through Optimum Complete, customers not only enjoy blazing fast, powerful, and reliable connectivity anywhere they go, but they can save up to $1,000 per year on their bills².

"Optimum Complete is our first true convergent offering, combining our most powerful connectivity products – internet and mobile – in a way that finally makes sense for consumers, who have told us that they want reliable products from one provider at a great price," said Leroy Williams, Chief Growth Officer at Optimum. "Not only are we making life easier for our customers, but with Optimum Complete, we're unlocking massive savings each month. Over the last several years, we've made network investments to offer the fastest fiber internet and enhance our services and support channels, and we are now proud to bring these superior experiences to our customers through Optimum Complete. The newest duo of Internet + Mobile is the future of Optimum, and we invite everyone to get onboard with Optimum Complete!”

Why Optimum Complete?

Optimum Complete Internet + Mobile bundles are available at various service levels and price points to meet the bandwidth and data needs of all customers.

The premier tier features Optimum Fiber 5 Gig, the fastest fiber internet service, with symmetrical speeds plus Optimum Mobile service with unlimited data. Other top tiers feature Optimum Fiber 2 Gig and Optimum Fiber 1 Gig symmetrical internet services with Unlimited Optimum Mobile service.

A detailed list of Optimum Complete tier options and service levels can be found at Optimum.com/complete.

Current Optimum Internet customers can add Optimum Mobile and unlock exclusive Optimum Complete savings of up to $15 per month on internet by having Optimum as their sole connectivity provider inside and outside the home.

Optimum Internet + Mobile Experience

Optimum has invested billions of dollars in its networks and services to deliver the fastest fiber internet and reliable broadband service, and customer satisfaction continues to increase with every upgrade and enhancement.

Thanks to these upgrades, not only are Optimum Internet customers enjoying faster speeds, but they are also receiving complete whole home WiFi, 99.9% reliability, and increased bandwidth for the best internet experience on multiple devices.

With Optimum Mobile, customers have access to America’s largest, fastest, and most awarded 5G network on a service that now has its highest ever customer satisfaction rate and was voted #1 by the American Customer Satisfaction Index (ACSI)³.
