Management Commentary:

Andy Heyward, Chairman and CEO of Genius Brands International, Inc. commented, "Today, we released our financial results for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2017. The third quarter of 2017 was a positive quarter for the Company from both an operational and financial perspective.

As we have discussed in previous quarters, the Company has two pillars of value creation - the brands we create, manage and monetize, and the Kid Genius Cartoon Channel. On September 28, 2017, we launched the Kid Genius Cartoons Plus! channel on Amazon Prime. This subscription streaming service is available to Amazon's 80 million Prime members for a monthly subscription fee of $3.99 that we share with Amazon. Kid Genius Cartoons Plus! features the Company's brands, as well as content we have licensed from third parties, such as Inspector Gadget, Liberty's Kids, Dino Squad, Eddie is a Yeti, Carl Squared, La Golda and Heads Up. In addition, the channel will also feature third-party preschool series, such as The Day Henry Met, So Smart!, Baby Prodigy, and Happy Kids. We believe that the Kid Genius Cartoons Plus! channel will enable us to grow awareness of our brands to consumers, as well as expand our revenue streams to include a subscription-based model.

On the brand side, we've had a positive quarter for many of our already-released brands as well as those currently in production. Thomas Edison's Secret Lab and SpacePOP are both continuing to progress, as reflected in the revenue increases in both Television & Home Entertainment and Licensing & Royalties in the third quarter of 2017 compared to the prior period.

Investment in Llama Llama increased during the quarter as we continued post-production during the quarter, while investment in Rainbow Rangers also increased, as pre-production activities, such as character design and scripting, began during the quarter. Both series have been licensed, with Llama Llama premiering on Netflix and Rainbow Rangers premiering on Nick Jr. While both series are still in production, we have been generating sales activities around both brands in advance of their completion. We continue to sign new agreements with consumer products licensees. During the quarter, we secured consumer products licensees in categories that include animatronic plush, cosmetics, backpacks and luggage, clothing, and motorized toys. As we have previously mentioned, while we cannot disclose the specific deal terms, these arrangements provide us minimum guaranteed royalties (and many times advances against that guaranteed minimum royalties) against future royalties. Average industry royalty rates are ten percent, providing the company with a share of either the retail or wholesale price of the products. The collection of these minimum guarantees and advances are reflected in the growing deferred revenue balances.

In addition to these activities within the third quarter, there were a few additional events which occurred subsequent to the end of the quarter that are noteworthy. Our sales teams were in Europe at three different markets including Brand Licensing Europe, the consumer products market in London, and MIPJunior and MIPCOM, the two content distribution/acquisition markets in Cannes. Feedback from potential licensees and broadcasters has been strong across all our brands, in particular for Rainbow Rangers, as well as for our Kid Genius Cartoon Channel. We expect to announce deals coming out of those markets in the next several weeks and months.

Lastly, on October 3, 2017, the Company sold, in a registered direct offering, an aggregate of 1,647,691 shares of Common Stock at an offering price of $3.90 per share and, in a concurrent private placement, warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,647,691 shares of Common Stock for gross proceeds of approximately $6,425,995 before deducting the placement agent fee and related offering expenses which we intend to use for general corporate purposes and working capital."
